...RESPONDENT

BAIL APPLICATION ON BEHALF OF ANKIT S/O. MOR SINGH IN THE ABOVE CAPTIONED MATTER UNDER SECTION 480 OF BNSS, 2023.

Most respectfully sheweth:

1. That the instant application is being filed on behalf of Ankit s/o. Mor Singh (hereinafter referred to as "Applicant") in FIR No. 538 of 2024. A copy of the FIR No. 538 of 2024 which has been filed under Section 318/319/61(2), is annexed herewith as Annexure A-1.

2. That this is the first bail application moved by the applicant in the present matter before this Hon'ble Court. No prior bail applications have been filed by the applicant before the Hon'ble Court.
3. That the main chargesheet has already been filed in the present matter on 30.01.2025. The investigation is complete and as such, there is no reason to keep and continue the custody of the applicant.
4. That the main handler of the chain ie Padam alias Sunil Shah was granted bail by this Hon'ble Court vide order dated 15.04.2025. The applicant is also entitled to bail on the ground of parity.
5. As on the date of filing of present application, the applicant has spent more than 40 days in custody and there is no reason why the applicant should be kept in custody any longer. All the sections mentioned in the FIR are punishable with less than 7 years of imprisonment and these sections cannot be termed as heinous offences in which bail cannot be granted for impact on the society.
6. The applicant has strong familial ties to the jurisdiction and there is no possibility of the applicant fleeing or absconding. The applicant is committed to appearing before the court as required. There are no criminal antecedents against the applicant. It is quite unfortunate that the applicant has been embroiled in the present case despite no involvement of the applicant.
7. Further, the Applicant is a resident of H. No. House No. 30/5, Gali No. 27, C Block, Uttarakhand Enclave, Shashtri Park, Burari, New Delhi-84 and has been staying there for the last several years and hence, there are no chances of him fleeing away from the process of law. Without prejudice to the aforesaid, the Applicant is the sole breadwinner in his family.

BRIEF FACTS

8. That the present FIR has been filed by one person called Arun Kumar Jain (hereinafter 'Complainant') who has alleged that he has been a victim of online fraud through the medium of WhatsApp and had been induced to transfer huge sums of money to multiple accounts for the purpose of stock trading.
9. The complainant alleges that he had received link to join certain WhatsApp groups. Through these WhatsApp groups, the complainant was made to download some online trading applications. The alleged purpose of the group was to give financial advice regarding investment by facilitating stock trading and IPOs.
10. That as per the allegation, the Complainant started investing with small amounts and later deposited a total sum of around 18 Cr in multiple accounts.
11. That it has been alleged that out of the total sum of Rs. 18 Cr, around 98 lakhs rupees was transferred in the account of Shree Ram Transport & Battery from 17.10.2024 to 22.10.2024 which is a layer 1 account. This amount was further siphoned off to other accounts.
12. A total of Rs. 32.79 lakhs were transferred into the bank account of Dayashankar Trading Pvt. Ltd. which is a layer 2 account. The allegations is that this account is held by two individuals in the capacity of directors, namely, Anuj Sharma and applicant.

13. The allegation against the applicant is that he is the director of the company in whose bank account the proceeds of the alleged fraud were received. It is imperative to note that Padam alias Sunil Shah has been granted bail by this Hon'ble Court on 15.04.2025.
14. That the applicant has not been directly involved in the present matter and M/s Dayashankar Trading Pvt. Ltd. was incorporated for the legitimate business purpose. The Applicant used to conduct business in the name of this company along with his friends Saurabh and Anuj Sharma and as such, used to meet several people in the course of expanding their business.
15. That there was a fiduciary relationship between the two directors and as such, the applicant used to trust him for all business-related endeavours.
16. That the applicant gave in-principle approval to enter into business with Padam alias Sunil Shah. It was in ordinary course of such business prospects that the account details of M/s Dayashankar was shared with the afore-mentioned people.
17. That the applicant has no knowledge of receiving the proceeds of alleged fraud with the Complainant and as such has not used any monies for his personal benefit.

18. It is stated that the applicant did not have any knowledge that the account details of his company will be used for committing any criminal act. The applicant was assured that the company was involved in legitimate business activity.
19. That the applicant has no other involvement in the crime and he has played the role of only a transporter/middle man who never utilised any proceeds. It is also a matter of fact that the middlemen/transporter in such cases are not aware about the commission of crime.
20. That as per the chargesheet, the role and culpability of the accused is limited to receiving monies in the account of his company. The applicant was under the genuine belief that the said monies were received as part of business.
21. That the applicant has been made a scape-goat in the present matter in order to provide an illusory effect that the investigation is complete, while the real criminals and masterminds of the scam roam about Scot-free.
22. It is stated that the applicant has so far cooperated with the police and has furnished all the information which the applicant was aware of. It is on the basis of information given by the applicant and cooperation extended to the investigating officer that the real culprit and the handler ie Padam alias Sunil Shah was arrested by the Police.
23. That all of the alleged received amount has been diverted into other bank accounts by the actual perpetrator of the crime about which the - applicant has no knowledge. The involvement of the applicant in the present matter has only been that the bank account which was opened in the name of his company has been misused.

24. That the Investigating Officer in the said FIR arrested the Applicant on 05.03.2025 from his home as mentioned above and took him in custody without any ground, cause or reason whatsoever.
 25. That the Applicant upon reaching the Police Station was questioned by the police that the Applicant has any knowledge about the entire transaction wherein the Applicant replied in negative as he has no nexus whatsoever with the entire crime or the Applicant persons.
 26. That the Applicant was in Police Custody from 05.03.2025 until 10.03.2025 wherein his statement under Section 180 of BNSS, 2023 has been recorded and no incriminating evidence to prove is direct involvement in the crime, has been found in the same. That the Applicant is presently in Judicial Custody.
 27. That without prejudice to the aforesaid, the Applicant does not have any role to play in the entire alleged crime and no evidence whatsoever has been found against the Applicant.
 28. That the crime alleged in the FIR is of cheating and it is a trite law that for the offence of cheating, the essential ingredients that has to be established is dishonest intention by the Applicant of inducing the Complainant to transfer money to the account of his company. In the given situation, the Applicant, having never met or spoken to the Complainant in any manner; there arises no occasion for the Complainant to be induced by the Applicant.

29. Further, with the Applicant not getting any wrongful gain out of the entire transaction, there can be no allegation of cheating against the Applicant.
30. That further, simply by virtue of knowing one of the accused, common intention to commit the crime cannot be attributed on part of the Applicant.
31. In view of the aforesaid, it can be inferred that the Applicant has a very strong case on merits and is only being made a scapegoat in the said matter.
32. That the Applicant is 26 years old individual with no prior criminal history who was working as a counselling psychologist to sustain himself and hence has no means to tamper with evidence or influence witness.
33. Further, the Applicant undertakes to fully aid in the process of investigation.
34. That the arrest memo falsely states that the applicant is non-cooperative as one of the grounds of arrest. The place of arrest has been recorded as IFSO, Spl. Cell, Dwarka, where the applicant had presented himself in compliance with the notice for appearance u/sec 35(3), BNSS. Thus, the applicant has never evaded the process of law and as such, has been nothing short of cooperative with the police.

35. That the reasons of arrest state that arrest was required in order to prevent the destruction of the cyber evidences/ devices used in this large-scale crime. It is stated that after more than 2 months of filing of chargesheet, the investigation is complete and the evidences/devices have been recovered. Accordingly, it is not possible to tamper with or destroy any material evidence.
36. That the statement of Section 180 having been already recorded and the Applicant already being in police custody for more than 40 days, there arises no reason whatsoever for the Applicant to be in custody any longer.
37. That the Applicant having no role whatsoever in the alleged crime does not have any information in his possession to be given to the police which would unearth the entire alleged crime and hence, no purpose will be served by keeping him in custody.
38. Further, it is trite law that bail is the norm and jail is only exception. In the facts and circumstances of the present matter, no reason whatsoever has come to surface to categorise the case of the Applicant as an exception.
39. That there being no evidence whatsoever against the Applicant, grave prejudice and irreparable harm will be caused to Applicant if he is kept in custody during trial of the present matter.

40. That Applicant is ready and willing to furnish a sound surety and any other condition that this Hon'ble Court may deem appropriate.
41. That Applicant shall comply with all the directions imposed by the court.
